

QUEANBEYAN AGE COLUMN 4 APRIL 2008

QUEANBEYAN CITY SUPPLEMENT 2008: Queanbeyan Business Council and The Canberra Times, supported by The Queanbeyan Age, are combining resources to produce a second Queanbeyan City supplement planned for Sunday, 6 July 2008.

QBC Members and Queanbeyan Age readers will remember the highly successful "Queanbeyan Watch us Grow" supplement in July 2007.

The 32 page 2007 supplement was launched as a lift out on The Sunday Canberra Times with an additional run of 10,000 copies that were widely distributed locally and around both NSW and ACT.

Copies are still held at the VIC and are available for view on our web site <http://www.queanbeyanbusinesscouncil.com.au/projects.html> . It has been a great resource for potential investors and residents alike

Much has changed in the City since the previous publication, and it was always intended that this would be an on-going feature highlighting Queanbeyan as a place to live, invest and work.

The 2008 edition will build on the previous publication by promoting the City's life-style advantages as well as its business and infrastructure. It will be a great opportunity for all segments of Queanbeyan's diverse community to showcase the City to a wide audience. A further 10,000 copies will again be produced in addition to the newspaper's circulation, giving the supplement a wide circulation and extended time frame.

Full colour advertising will be available from 10 cm x 3 column to full page, with special Early Bird rates for Queanbeyan Business Council Members. Booking deadline is Wednesday, 11 June, whilst material deadline is Wednesday 18 June.

For more information, contact QBC's Simon Mitchell-Taverner on 6299 7152 or Ernie Nichols of Canberra Times on 6280 2436.

MURRAY-DARLING BASIN AGREEMENT: Queanbeyan Business Council applauds the Agreement reached at the recent COAG Summit. Of additional interest to Queanbeyan was ACT Chief Minister Jon Stanhope's comment that, following this agreement, the Federal Government is 'on the cusp' of handing ownership of Googong Dam to the ACT. QBC is seeking assurances through Federal Member for Eden-Monaro Hon. Dr. Mike Kelly AM MP that Queanbeyan's on-going water needs will be protected as part of any such transfer of ownership.

QUEANBEYAN SOUVENIRS: Should you wish to take some Queanbeyan souvenirs away with you on your next trip, or have visitors staying with you who would like to take a memento home, the Visitor Information Centre at 1 Farrer Place has a range of products with local identity. These include T

Shirts, Polo Shirts, postcards, pins, fridge magnets and shot glasses, whilst new can coolers featuring the VIC are arriving very soon.

If you are traveling to Sydney or the Coast, the VIC can ticket you on Murrays or Premier Motor Service.
